BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION
—AND—
Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE

SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order. should make a TIGHT LOCK-STITCH alike on both sides of the material, and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.

It should be able to use cotton, thread, or silk directly from the spool, and to sew from coarse to fine, and from thick to thin, with rapidity and without changing the tension. It should also be able to make the tension greater or less, on both the under and upper threads, and with uniformity and should have a straight needle curved ones being liable to break

The needle should have perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work

It should be able to bind with a binder hem with a hemmer; should stitch fell run and gather, and always ready to work

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work and of using different colored thread or silk above or below to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united

It should be able to make a long or short stitch and to fasten off the seam and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch and to run easily and make but little noise

It should have a wheel ... in constant contact with the work

It should not be liable to get out of order; neither should it require a screw-driver or wrench to set the needle

It should not be liable to soil the operator's dress

It should not form a ridge on the underside ... ravel

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 12, 1862

Multnomah County Union Convention

The freemen of Multnomah County who are willing to throw aside all previous political prejudices and party platforms, and sustain the Administration in suppressing armed rebellion, blotting out treason and preserving unimpaired the priceless inheritance of constitutional liberty, are hereby requested to meet in their several precincts at the usual place of voting, on Saturday the 19th inst, at one o'clock P M., and elect Delegates to attend a Union County Convention to be holden at the Court house in Portland on Saturday the 26th inst, at one o'clock P M, to put in nomination a ticket for County Officers to be voted for at the coming election, composed of men whose political creed is Union first, Union last, and Union forever

The precincts are entitled, on the basis of the popular vote, to the following number of Delegates North Portland, 19, South Portland, 21; St John's, 1 Powell's Valley 3; Multnomah, 2; Sandy, 2; Willamette 2 Sauvie's Island 4

Per order of Committee A DUFUR, Chn
Portland, April 5th, 1862.

The Position of the Secession Party.

The first grand move in breaking up the Government by the Secessionists, was to inculcate the doctrine that States had a right to secede from the Union Especially they had the right, if according to the ideas of the people of a State, Congress in its enactments did not grant to the States all the privileges they claimed under the Constitution The Southern States claimed, and the Breckinridge party claimed, that if Congress did not pass laws to protect slavery in the Territories, the States were not made equal, and those aggrieved had a right to secede. This was the doctrine through all the last campaign contended for by the present Secession party The Secession party held to the doctrine as declared by General Lane in Congress, and by Senator Stark in this city, that the States, when they chose, had the Constitutional right to secede from the Union.

Months have passed since the election, and we have yet had no authoritative declaration on the part of General Lane or his adherents here, that they have changed position on this subject. They sometimes talk of their love for the Union; but they at all times condemn their own Government—find no acts of the Administration they can approve—and show by their sympathies "where their treasure is, and where their hearts are also " No man in looking at their acts—and marking the tone of their presses, but must be conscious that they have less complaints to make of Jeff Davis' acts than they have of those of Abraham Lincoln—have more confidence in the documents of the Confederate States than of those of the Government under which they live exhibit more signs of joy when they hear of Federal defeats than of Federal victories, and manifest signs of deep regret when the Federal arms triumph Who does not know that we have among us men claiming to lead the Democratic party, who would rejoice at the entire success of the rebels, and who have thus expressed themselves time and again in the presence of Union citizens?

We regard in principle the Secessionists and their sympathisers in this war, as more unprincipled than the tories of '76 The difference between the olden and the modern tory is purely circumstantial, and the circumstances are in favor of the former The one breathed in the times of '76, when a republic was an experiment, the other knows that the experiment has been gloriously successful for four-score years. The one was opposed to a government of the country by the people of the country, and the other is so opposed The first was unwilling to have the people of the land rule the land, and the second is similarly unwilling. But while one objected to sacrifice peace and the ties of fatherland, with its hallowed memories and proud historic associations, to enter upon a novel experiment under gloomy auspices, the other invokes war or justifies war, trampling upon every sentiment of National pride, outraging the glorious history and flag of our country, in order to destroy the tried and well proved experiment of National Government. Every sentiment that polluted the course of the tory of '76, aggravates that of the Secessionist to day.

It will always be remembered that a few months ago the land was prospering under the free institutions purchased by the blood of patriots, shed years ago in a revolution against English aristocracy. "That sacred war was waged for the right of the people to rule Only this right was meant and understood when orators spoke and poets sang of liberty This is the very right against which the present rebellion is raised. The peace and thrift of the country have been destroyed by a rebellion against that free government for which the fathers prayed and bled. Controvert it who can. The fact stands as a mountain of adamant, that this glorious land has been delivered over to the horrors of civil war because a faction of its citizens choose to make war rather than acquiesce in the regular constitutional and equitably obtained verdict of the people at the ballot box."

That is the cause of all the woes that now afflict this nation The slave propagandists—who sought to extend slavery by means of Congressional acts—failed in the elections They saw that free labor and free mind must of necessity in future control the national government They had looked forward to this state of things for years, and they determined to break up the existing government and establish one in the South "based on human slavery" Pro-slavery men everywhere sympathized in this movement They sympathize with it now Take from the Breckinridge democratic party in this State, all its members who sympathize with slavery, and not a corporal's guard would remain Thus it is that the secession party of Oregon, in thought, in wish, in sympathy, are with rebellion and against our own government That is the true position of the secession party

The Fort Donelson Prisoners

The steamers brought 8,000 of those prisoners to Alton The paper of that city says When the boats arrived from Cairo, they were each allowed to lie up for several hours at the city levee before proceeding to the Illinois shore Their presence drew crowds of thousands to the wharf, who went up within 25 feet of the guards of the boats, chatted freely with the prisoners and threw them apples, oranges, cakes and pies, in a continuous stream The "secesh" soon became as cheerful as their entertainers, and scrambled vigorously for the edibles pitched to them by their visitors Not a word of taunt or insult was uttered during the entire day, and all, even the most brutish and malignant among them, were compelled to acknowledge that they could not have received better treatment at the hands of their best friends. Some of them when questioned expressed a quenchless hatred of black republicans and Yankees Others were tired of the war and were glad that they were captured, as they could now have no further participation in the strife Others declared they had been deceived by Secession leaders into taking up arms against the Union, while not a few of them, particularly Tennesseans, averred that they had always been Union men at heart, and were drafted into the rebel service or compelled to enlist to avoid the disgrace of a draft East Tennessee they said was full of Union men, who would take up arms the moment a Government force came to their relief with arms and ammunition A large majority of the prisoners acknowledged their cause was a desperate one, and that the Government forces would ultimately conquer. About a fifth part of the prisoners were dressed in well worn suits of Confederate uniform—gray with metal buttons and black cuffs and collars. Another fifth, perhaps, had some portion of this uniform A good many more had a uniform of brown-colored country jeans, commonly called bark jeans, or butternut jeans, but more than half of the whole number had no attempt at uniform, being dressed as variously as a country population is in time of peace Their clothing was substantial and comfortable, very few being ragged and squalid in appearance They looked, in the most part, well fed, and as if they had not wanted for enough of the necessaries of life There was a comparative scarcity of knapsacks among them, very many having carpet bags and satchels of various sorts and sizes, while many, too, had no better reliance than their pockets for carrying rations and such small articles as a soldier may carry in addition to his arms There was scarcely a blanket of the Federal army regulation pattern to be seen among them. Some companies and regiments made a considerable display of blankets that were white when new and clean, and of the kind used upon beds Those not thus provided, wore old quilts and coverlids of all patterns and colors, and pieces of carpeting of every conceivable hue and figure, and varying in quality from the coarsest home made to the finest Brussels Standing on the decks of the boats, wrapped in this variegated covering, with their weather brown faces, they looked genuine Red Skins, adorned with the taste of the Indians for the fantastic Nearly all the field officers, and half the subalterns, wore the Confederate grey, with their caps and coat sleeves, up to the elbows, profusely adorned with gold lace The colonels wore three stars upon each side of the collar, and there were other officers wearing two stars and one star, who, I presume were lieutenant-colonels and majors The collars of others were decorated with lace or buttons, in a way that set all attempts to guess at the rank of the wearer at defiance

INDIAN WAR —The S F Mirror contains further particulars of the Indian outbreak in Nevada The Indians have attacked the whites on Owen's river Douglas and Cumming escaped badly wounded Benj Mark and Dick McGuire started to come in, but have not been heard from Doubtless they have been murdered There remained 45 men on Owen's river, well armed They had fortified themselves They were surrounded by 1500 Indians, who have taken all the cattle on Owen's river Aid had been sent for to Virginia City

Eugene Convention.

We have dates from Eugene City to April the 9th, 11 o'clock. Most of the Delegates had arrived No understanding had been had in regard to the nominations There were a good many candidates spoken of, but no estimates had been made of the strength of candidates among the members We shall be likely to receive further news this evening

GENERAL STONE —The Washington correspondent of the New York Times thus speaks of General Stone's alleged treachery

"An honorably discharged New York soldier, visiting Washington lately for the purpose of getting his pay, mentioned to a gentleman in one of the public offices, that while he—the soldier—was on picket duty near Edward's Ferry, sometime after the Ball's Bluff affair, Gen Stone, accompanied by a single servant, rode down near the Ferry, and entering an old unoccupied house, looked across the river through his spyglass He then remounted and rode away, but soon returned, and having apparently discovered, by the aid of his spyglass, the object for which he was looking, waved his hand Directly after, about a dozen rebel horsemen appeared on the opposite bank Gen Stone then went to the pickets and ordered five men to cross and see what the horsemen wanted On reaching the Virginia shore they were retained as hostages, while an equal number of rebels crossed over, and held a conference with Gen Stone, in the house before described A soldier at the ferry saw a sealed packet passing between the rebels and the General One of the rebels remarked to one of the hostages that they had "come down by appointment." Capt Porter headed the rebels Owing to the danger that attends complaints on the part of soldiers against their superiors, and the nervous anxiety with which Gen. Stone prevented communication between the men of his command and the Capital, these facts remained unnoticed until the other day.

What is contained in the above statement is about all that has come to light so far touching the offense of Gen Stone."

MAFFIT —John Newland Maffit used sometimes to soar into the region of the clouds, and scatter his figures of speech without regard to order, until his sermons were spangled all over Here is a specimen "White robed Liberty sits upon her rosy clouds above us, the Genius of our Country, standing on her throne of mountains, bids her eagle standard bearer wind his spiral course, full in the sun's proud eye, while the Genius of Christianity, surrounded by ten thousand cherubim and seraphim, moves the panorama of the milky clouds above us, and floats in immortal fragrance—the very aroma of Eden through all the atmosphere "

School Superintendent's Notice.—Notice is hereby given to all persons who wish to teach the common schools of this County for the ensuing year that an examination of Teachers will be held at the Public School-house in Portland, on Saturday the 12th day of April inst at nine o'clock A M A punctual and a general attendance is requested.

How to go to the Mines.—Miners who now purpose going to Salmon River, Rhodes Creek, and the other mining regions, should not start out unprepared to travel through a cold and starved out country, for it is known by all who have come from above the Cascades that the country is now bare of all kinds of provisions, its supplies having been cut off by the long stoppage of navigation Therefore we would enjoin all who wish to go through comfortably, and return with their pockets full of "Rocks," to call at HARKER BROTHERS, opposite the Upper Wharf, and supply themselves with Flour Bacon Beans Groceries Blankets Clothing Rubber and Nailed Boots and all other articles necessary for mining purposes before they embark for the Land of Promise

WE hereby certify that a survey has been held on Steamship Sierra Nevada by Robert Roxby, whose certificate of report is annexed, and that the said Robert Roxby is a competent Surveyor whose acts are worthy of full credit and belief

[L. S.] FAULKNER, BELL & CO Agents for Lloyd's
San Francisco 28th February, 1862

SAN FRANCISCO, 27th Feb'y, 1862.

At the request of Messrs Faulkner, Bell & Co., having been called upon to survey the Am steamship Sierra Nevada, Capt C C Dall, [illegible] register 1,246 tons, built at New York in the year 1851. Her frame is oak and best [illegible], the beams and knees are sound and well fastened, and the ceiling in good order, the decks, hatchways, and covering boards are in good order. This vessel has recently been repaired at the Pacific Steamship Co.'s Yard [illegible] the whole of the [illegible] have been stripped off, and replaced with ten streaks of live-oak [illegible] quality and extra length, she has been strengthened with extra pointers. I inspected this vessel before she was replanked, and found the timbers sound; she is copper and iron fastened and sheathed with yellow metal up to 14 feet. She has three masts, square-rigged forward; the masts, spars, standing rigging and sails, are in good order, four boats, the present tackle is in good order, the machinery has been overhauled, and the boilers [illegible] It is my opinion that said steamship Sierra Nevada is now in good and seaworthy condition, and entitled to the confidence of underwriters, passengers and shippers.

ROBERT ROXBY.

CHARLES C BEMIS, U S Inspector of Boilers for this District being duly sworn says: That on the 21st day of February 1862 at the request of Messrs Holladay & Flint, he tested the boilers of the Steamship Sierra Nevada and applied a hydrostatic pressure of 24 pounds to said boiler per inch and that they withstood the pressure without any trouble, difficulty or evidence of weakness. That [illegible] the usual [illegible] a severe test was applied or deemed necessary. Upon his inspection of her machinery and boilers, I pronounce it perfectly safe and sea-worthy, so far as that department is concerned

FOREST GROVE March 18th, 1862

EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Though not a politician in the technical sense I have been a voter for many years in Oregon, and have been always deeply interested in the political condition of this State, and of the whole country This interest has deepened to intensity in consequence of the exciting events of the past year

A good deal is said or done now, and more is soon to be referring directly to the coming political canvass In this I also feel a deep interest not as an active politician, but as one who loves his country and State adopted as mine more than thirteen years ago But what about this canvass? A great deal about it One thing however, above all others presses upon my mind just now We are beginning again to see articles in the papers charging upon one and another the high crime or the ambitious purpose at least of being candidates for certain high offices in the gift of the people—as Representative to Congress Senator &c Now what is the object of these articles? Of some of them as appears to me not to stir up the people to seek men to fill these offices of high and noble principle, of incorruptible integrity of pure morals but rather to make it impossible for such men to be elected to any political office It is intimated that political affairs are so essentially "dirty" in themselves that such men as are referred to above, would quickly become so smeared with them that they would be lost to themselves and to society! It seems to me high time that we were emancipated from thraldom to such ideas as these It is time that such stuff was cleared off like offensive offal from the streets! How, I ask in the name of decency and common sense, how is it that politics becomes dirty? Is it because they are so in themselves? Or because they are made so by the dabbling of "dirty" fingers? Were the politics of Washington "dirty" affairs, soiling and begriming his white and shining robes? Not at all Away then in this year of our country's need with the rottenness of a few past years, which has been one cause of our present great distress If we would be saved as a State, if we would be saved as a country, we must have our politics purified And how can this be done? Only by putting men into office who themselves have clean hands and pure hearts Let the people then in their coming preliminary meetings select such men as candidates for office as in addition to known and tried ability in other respects are eminent for integrity and purity of character And should such in any case be selected, we earnestly hope that not one of them, whatever his profession or position in the past will be frightened from the candidate's post by the cry of "dirty politics"

As I here I close by expressing my earnest hope that our State may not be [illegible] and situate as to have any important offices filled by those who are striving to gain them by false insinuations or representations respecting the character and motives of others, or by pulling down others Yours truly,

FRANKLIN

A STRANGE SUIT—A SON AGAINST A BIGAMIST FATHER —Two very curious cases were tried in New York recently One of these that of William Smith Jr against William Smith, was an action brought by a son against a father for the board of the father's wife. Some seventeen or eighteen years ago the defendant deserted his family then living in Leeds England and came to this country, where he has married two wives with one of whom he now lives The first wife together with her son, continued to reside in England until about a year ago, when they took emigrated to America, and took up their residence in this city. They had not been here long before they found out the whereabouts of the truant husband and father, and presenting themselves to him suddenly one lady boldly claimed him as the r[illegible] in the presence of his third wife The elder Smith denied the soft impeachment declaring that he had never set his eyes upon either of the parties before and finally drove them from the house as impostors Subsequently, other interviews were had but the old man continued obstinately oblivious of all knowledge of his visitants whereupon resort was had to legal advice which led to this suit as the last means of forcing the father to shell out his hand It had the desired effect for Smith it seems, owned up in court to the charges brought against him and was accordingly cast in the whole sum sued for He will now be proceeded against for bigamy, as it has been ascertained that his second wife is still living

The Government and Military Intelligence in the Newspapers

The Government has taken military possession of all the telegraph lines within the United States, and forbidden the publication of any news of military movements which have not received the sanction of the Government censor The least penalty for disobedience of this order will be the refusal of the use of the telegraph lines at all for those journals who transgress This unwonted stringency is designed to put a check on the N Y Tribune and other papers which have seemed to consider it excellent sport to do everything in their power to thwart the Government and bring defeat to its arms until until it shall have yielded to the demand that the war shall be made a crusade for universal emancipation The new order also by its extraordinary efforts at military secrecy adds another to the evidences that important movements are immediately contemplated —S F Bulletin

A poultry fancier lately procured a picture of a favorite hen, which was so natural that it laid on his table for several weeks

News to the 24th March.

Abraham's lying telegraph brings the following lies to us for publication. As we are not allowed to get anything but what comes through the permission of a telegraph censor, our readers will know what amount of reliance they can place in these reports

This is the bark of the young animal which lately opened its eyes in Eugene City, called the Democratic Register

Government has taken charge of telegraph lines to prevent the publication of intelligence of the movements of the Union forces which would enable the rebels to take advantage of such information It may with truth be said that thousands of lives have been lost, and military enterprises have been arrested, by the publication of such intelligence Of course the secession press are opposed to any policy on the part of government designed to put down rebellion

Jeff Davis' Government has long controlled the telegraphic lines in Secessia He deemed this measure necessary to insure success to his military operations Secessionists here have never complained of Jeff Davis for doing this—but as will be seen above, they denounce in bitter language, the same measure adopted by the government which circulates at its own cost their treasonable sheets

ST LOUIS Jan 16, 1862

* * The selection of the Hon Edwin M Stanton as Secretary of War has occasioned me unalloyed gratification It is an immense stride in the direction of the suppression of the rebellion So far as I can gather the popular sentiment there is everywhere rejoicing over the appointment but that rejoicing would be far greater, did the people know as I do the courage, the loyalty and genius of the new Secretary as displayed in the intensely tragic struggles that marked the closing days of the last Administration He is a great man intellectually and morally—a patriot of the true Roman stamp who will grapple with treason as Hercules grappled with his prey We may rest well assured that all that man can do will in his present position be done to deliver our imperiled country from the fangs of traitors now lifted against its bosom Sincerely yours

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S

Private Medical & Surgical Institute,

SACRAMENTO STREET, BELOW MONTGOMERY,
Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases, and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending and Resident Physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds; Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary; the late Lecturer on Diseases of the Urinary Organs, and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine. ☞ Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

Office Hours—From 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

☞ Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed, or no pay. Consultations, by letter or otherwise, FREE. Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases, the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted!

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Stricture, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsams. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system, drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence, I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice, and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude to make known their cases and remedial agent, and their statements are authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of society [illegible] command their publicity, and we commend them to the attention of all afflicted:

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunately suffering [illegible], where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay for the permanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practices of an uncontrollable passion in youth, depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my complaint as of trifling importance—but, alas! after a few weeks, and in some instances, months, of their treatment, I found, to my unutterable horror, that instead of relief, my symptoms became more alarming in their torture, and being told by one that my case being principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength, and energy; and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who, after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by this result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my head became clear, and my ideas collected, the constant pain in the back and groins the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study, and want of resolution, the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared, and in fact, in two months after having consulted the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by self-destruction. With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty, after this testimony to the merits and skill of Dr. Czapkay, to recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience, that he will render in every case a radical and permanent cure.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I [illegible] last of your medicine and do not think I [illegible] to take any more. I feel very well, except that I have [illegible] got my strength yet, but soon will with the [illegible]. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, [illegible] your Institute, with my constitution, as I [illegible] entirely, and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to [illegible] to ease the pain in my back and head, and [illegible] nerves, so that I would not get excited and [illegible] nothing. Now that you know what I expected, judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery [illegible] symptoms, and the removal of those sores [illegible] my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the [illegible] pains of those eruptions, which you said were the cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell [illegible] greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except [illegible] got my strength, I feel as well as any man [illegible].
